

Husband and wife duo Kyra and Tully spent three years penning their latest release, Journey Home, a five-song EP that has a new sonic sensibility thanks to co-producer Matt Rogalsky (PS I Love You). It sees them delving back into themes of love, nature and the mysteries of human existence. The songs are rich and melodic, beautifully capturing the fragility that lies in the space between sadness and hope. At once upbeat and melancholy, Kyra and Tully's sincere songwriting will keep you humming along.
